Reader—Do you like an extra fine quality of Formosa Oolong Tea? Are you willing to buy the highest grade that can be bought of the Importer in this country?—always provided that you pay no more than it is worth.

There is always a Tea, a Coffee, a Manufactured Implement, etc., etc., that stands above all others; there is always the BEST! A large number in every community want and are willing to pay for the best. We have that Tea and invite your attention to it. We work at the trade, we try to know the qualities and the values of Tea!

In large cities this very same brand of Tea sells for $1.50 per lb; we offer it at a considerably less price; a sample given if required.

COFFEE!

50 mats of Choice Java and 15 qrs of Choice Mocha received to-day, bought direct from the importer; we have it roasted twice or three times a week and grind it to order. It is honest. It will bring you back for more! We have always been favored with a large Coffee trade and it is because we have sold JAVA for JAVA, MOCHA for MOCHA. This lot is a fine one and those who try it will be convinced.

We offer a choice pure Coffee for 28c per lb. WE SELL NO MIXTURES.

HYPERION.

Stuart Robson to-night will produce Charles Burnard's adaptation of the French comedy, "Madam Mongolian," the American title being "Mrs. Ponderbury's Pass," which is the same now used in London, where the play is having a prosperous run. Mr. Burnard is the editor of London Punch and is one of England's cleverest adapters. Mr. Robson will be seen in the character of Ponderbury, the poor domineered husband, a "slave to a knife," the emblem of his wife's Amazonian virtue, the weapon with which in the long ago she protected herself against an audacious villain; the idol before which everybody bends the head, the theme of the story for every new comer. The dialogue and the incidents bristle with the fun of the French authors and the pointed wit of the English adapter. The comedy will be elaborately staged and interpreted by a company of excellence. Sale of seats now open.

"The Shop Girl" will be presented to-night. The production will be made with virtually the original London cast. Al. Hayman and Charles Frohman, under whose management "The Shop Girl" is presented in America, brought over about seventy people for the piece. Among these comedians, singers, dancers, and pretty women are George Grossmith, Jr., Alfred Wright, Dwyer, Walter McEwen, George Honey, Bertie Asher, Violet Lloyd, Annie Al. Connie Ediss, May Beaugard, Minnie Sadler, Winnie Rose, Adelaide Astor, Violet Dene, Ida Wallace, Hylda Galt, Nellie, Huxley, Zara De Lamo, Nellie Langton, Violet Durkin, Annie Vivian, and Dorothy Douglas. Sale of seats now open.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

At the Grand Opera house to-night and Friday and Saturday evenings "A Romance of Conco Hollow" will be presented. In the mountains of East Tennessee there lies a romantic glen known as Conco Hollow. The strength of "Conco Hollow" lies in its humanity. Georgia, the rosiest violet, and Clyde Harrod, the mountain thistle, are people one often meets in a day's travel in that part of the country, while all of the other characters are flesh and blood beings. The bursting of the dam in this out-of-the-way place forms one of the principal scenic effects in the modest play. It is a scene that is realistic. A cotton compress at work gives a sensational effect, and the scene of stage realism is reached in the race between the steamboats Robert E. Lee and Natchez, on the Mississippi river. A unique electrical effect makes one of the scenes particularly strong. Besides a complete metropolitan company, "Conco Hollow" carries two quartets and a troupe of male and female colored buck and wing dancers. Headed by the popular little soubrette star, Lizzie Evans.

Between the acts Professor Wallace's "Glyphoramas" will be exhibited. There will be a ladies' bon bon matinee on Friday and the usual matinee Saturday. The Wilbur Opera company in repertoire will be at the Grand Opera house all next week.

POLI'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.

Lincoln play was well observed at Poli's Wonderland theater, there being large audiences present. The show is a great one, as good in all respects as any of the splendid ones given there during recent weeks. The four Angela sisters are realizing all expectations, their pretty singing and whistling especially being very attractive. Morton and Mack are making a big hit also in their unique Irish dancing and bagpipe playing novelty. Another very funny specialty is the one which Arthur Moreland and John Hart present, the latter being full as funny as when he played the title role here in "The Two Johns." Other pleasing acts are presented by Miss Flo Banks, the Ammons-Clerise trio, Miss Rosina Venus, Mr. and Miss Campbell, George Moore and Mr. Baker and Miss Lynn. Next week the three Nightingale brothers and Mlle Frassetty.

ST. VALENTINE'S POP.

An Excellent Program in Every Respect—Fine Music—A Big House Assured. That good music is appreciated by all classes of society is evinced by the large attendance at the former pops given by Miss Justine Ingersoll, and the coming concert, which will far excel all the previous ones, bids fair to outdo it in every way, both in attendance and excellence of the program, which will be given as follows:

RHEUMATISM.

Victims of this most painful disease will be glad to learn that there is a positive cure for it. Fred. Graff of Greenville, N. Y., writes: "I suffered awfully with rheumatism for five years and could find no relief from the various medicines I took until James E. Elston recommended which I used, and after taking five bottles it cured me. It is a great medicine and works as sure as coal does in a locomotive. This medicine has done much for me."

It is a never failing specific in diseases of the skin, liver, kidneys and blood, and cures where all other treatments fail.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

United States Commissioner Wright spent yesterday in Springfield as advisor in deciding the terms of settlement of an estate of that city.

The "Roentgen or X ray photography" is well told about in this week's Scientific American, for sale at Pease's on Church street.

Miss Anna Day read a paper before the Mary Clap Wooster chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Tuesday afternoon. Miss Day's paper told the story of an old colonial settlement, that at present stands in a certain house in New Haven.

The trial of E. J. Conwell for arson will be held in Southport to-day and is expected to be the most sensational trial ever held in the village. A dozen or more of the prominent business men of the village have been summoned as witnesses.

A friends of Michael C. Murphy, the Yale track athlete trainer, said yesterday that Mr. Murphy had received a tempting offer to go to the University of Pennsylvania.

The Police Mutual Aid society cleared $1,700 from their recent ball. Two years ago the net receipts were $2,100, but the expenses this year were larger.

Some excitement was caused at Yale university yesterday by the announcement that seven juniors had been suspended until September 2. The given cause was "presenting to the rhetoric department as their own composition written matter not their own composition."

Mr. H. G. Flemming of St. Louis, the J. T. Plub tobacco and the Toddy cigarette representative man, is in town. The Hubing brothers have offered to construct a fine bicycle track at the Elm City Driving park for the newly organized local bicycle club as soon as the club is ready to hold a meet.

City Clerk Lewis was yesterday notified that the Consolidated railroad had withdrawn its appeal from the order of the court of common council compelling it to pay the cost of the new sidewalk on Bridge street, a total amount of nearly $900.

Max Levy of Congress avenue has purchased of Frederick C. Smith, the feed dealer, the premises at 51 Washington street. The price paid was $5,200 and the business was transacted by Thomas F. Cox, the real estate dealer. Levy will convert the building into a flat with stores on the first floor.

The treasurer of the Union school district of East Haven has paid to the county treasurer $1,700 in payment for the condemned property of the Stephen Hemingway estate and of Mrs. Ellen S. Kirkham on Thompson street. The money was paid to the county treasurer because Mrs. Kirkham refused to accept her portion and there is some question over the title of the Hemingway property.

The quartermaster general is receiving from commanding officers of the National Guard the bronze five-year marksmen's badges for exchange. The new badges to be issued will bear the designation "V-year" on the bar, and they will be made on the same die as the silver ten-year badges.

August Schaefer, who keeps a baker shop at 65 Congress avenue, was badly injured at 9 o'clock yesterday morning while trying to prevent his horse from running away. The horse fell on him. Dr. Strauss was called. Schaefer sustained severe internal injuries.

The work on the addition to the county jail, which has been in progress for some time past, is now about completed. As soon as the workshop is moved the men will begin at the old shop to convert it into a jail. The floor will be torn up and 100 cells will be put up.

Frank E. Morgan, for many years a prominent official of the New Haven Clock company, has recently completed the invention of an automatic gas meter which is likely to prove a bonanza to him. Although it has just been patented, Mr. Morgan has already received one order from the Consolidated Gas company for 10,000 of the devices.

Preparations for the manufacture of the attachments are now being made under the direction of F. A. Lane, who for many years was also associated with Mr. Morgan at the works of the New Haven Clock company.
